HIS JUST REWARD.

Henry Henson Dies on the Scaffold for the Brutal Murder of His Wife.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Aug. 13.—Henry Henson was hanged in the jail yard in this city this morning. The drop fell at 7:11, and death was announced a minute later. The condemned man passed last night in chatting and joking with the guards and appeared indifferent to the fact that his last hours on earth were passing swiftly away. He did not sleep during the latter part of the night and early morning, and at 5 o'clock he asked for and received a whisky cocktail. He said he wanted a "bracer" for the ordeal.

At 6:30, Rev. Edwards, rector of St. James Episcopal church, called to see Henson and offer religious consolation, but the latter refused to see him until the hour of execution arrived. At 7 o'clock the death warrant was read and the march to the gallows commenced.

Henson was placed on the gallows at 7:10, and at once started in on a rambling and incoherent speech. At 7:11 the drop fell and a snapping sound was heard as the vertebræ parted.

He was pronounced dead at 7:20, but it was evident death was instantaneous. The body was cut down at 7:32 and carried into the morgue.

It required a coffin of immense proportions to do service for the remains of Henson, as the individual was of huge size, and weighed 315 pounds. Deceased was born in Denmark in 1842.

Henry Henson was convicted of the murder of his wife, Ida. Henson had married a widow with one child. They lived unhappily together in a boarding house which they conducted at 405 South Second street, Henson being of an insanely jealous disposition. On the evening of February 2nd, 1889, Henson charged his wife with receiving the attention of a crippled tailor who rented apartments in the house. A quarrel ensued and, after some hot words, Henson took a revolver from the table drawer and started toward the woman. The latter's thirteen-year-old son interfered and Henson left the room. A little later he returned, placed the muzzle of the weapon against the side of the unsuspecting woman's head and sent a ball crashing into her brain. As the stepson ran from the room a second ball grazed his form. At the trial a defense was made but the jury found Henson guilty, after being out only thirty-three minutes.

ANOTHER HANGING.

LEXINGTON, Mo., Aug. 13.—Christian Young was hanged in the jail yard here at 8:17 this morning. The body fell six feet and his neck was broken. He was pronounced dead ten minutes after the trap was sprung. Young chatted with his guards until nearly midnight, and then slept until 5 o'clock this morning. After a hearty breakfast, he smoked a cigar and joked with people. He ascended the scaffold with a firm tread. Just before the drop fell Young exclaimed: "Give my regards to the Higginsville boys."

On the night of Saturday, Dec. 10th, 1888, Christian Young, who lived with his wife and one child at Corder, Lafayette county, gave a dance and invited the neighbors. Along about 10 o'clock the supply of beer gave out and Young and two companions, Henry Hoppe and Peter Fuchs, started to a saloon, a few hundred yards away, to replenish their stock. On the way back the party got into an altercation with a young man named George Hart. Geo. Ferguson, proprietor of a saloon near the scene, approached the combatants and essayed to assist Hart, when Young, who had a knife in his hand, struck Ferguson in the throat. The jugular vein was severed and the man fell dead to the ground. After many continuances the case came to trial and ended in Young's conviction. Young claims that he was so drunk at the time that he did not know anything about it.

HAIL STORMS

Destroy the Bountiful Crops of Minnesota Farmers.

MELROSE, Minn., Aug. 13.—One of the most terrific hail storms ever witnessed in this vicinity, passed through near here last evening. Thousands of acres of the finest wheat in this country was knocked down in a few moments, many of the farmers losing all their crops, even corn and potatoes. No estimate can at present be made up of the loss to standing grain, and considerable damage was done to grain in shock. Hailstones the size of an egg fell in many places.

COMMITTED SUICIDE.

Scandal Mongers Drive a Physician to the Horrible Deed.

SCRANTON, Pa., Aug. 13.—Dr. Arthur Jones killed himself at his home here about midnight, shooting three bullets into his left breast. He had grown melancholy and dependent over the talk of his neighbors connecting him with the death of his wife, several weeks ago, the charge being made that while she was confined he came home drunk and dragged her down stairs by the hair, the injuries she received resulting in her death. He denied the charges but the neighbors persisted in them and he hid himself until the funeral was over to avoid meeting some of the women who threatened him harm. The talk did not cease, however, and he finally said he would take his own life. He came here six years ago after graduating at the Jefferson medical college, in Philadelphia.

CHOLERA.

Springfield, Ohio, Has a Genuine Case --Grave Fears of an Epidemic Like That of 1850.

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio, Aug. 13.—A case of genuine cholera is reported to the board of health and some fears are entertained that the city will be visited by another epidemic like that of '50. Henry Hilton, of 250 Gallagher street, is the victim.

BAD STORM.

Connecticut and Massachusetts the Scene of a Severe Tornado.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Aug. 13.—A violent thunder storm struck the city yesterday afternoon. Several trees were blown down and lightning struck in many places. Two boats were capsized in the bay, but their occupants were saved.

WORCESTER, Mass., Aug. 13.—A terrific thunder storm passed over this city yesterday afternoon, but no serious damage was done to property. At Clinton Robt. Miller was struck by lightning and killed.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Aug. 13.—The remarkably hot weather of the past three days culminated in a severe wind and rain storm yesterday afternoon. A big mill building of the Providence Dyeing company was unroofed and rain poured in on goods, doing $2,000 damage. Hundreds of windows were demolished by the storm. Much damage was done to telegraph and telephone wires.

IT IS A FRAUD.

So Says the Postmaster General Concerning a Portrait Company.

NEW YORK, Aug. 13.—The Times this morning says that Postmaster Collins, of Brooklyn, has received an order from the postmaster general office directing him to withhold all registered letters and money orders sent to the Tanqueray Portrait company, of 751 to 755 DeKalb street. This concern has been sending circulars all over the country, offering to make crayon portraits absolutely free of charge. After the portrait is finished its delivery is refused until a frame has been purchased for it from the company at a cost greater than the regular price. Complaints were made to the postoffice authorities that the concern was a fraud, and yesterday's order was the result.

NEGRO FIENDS

Attempt an Assault Upon Two Unprotected Women.

SARATOGA, N. Y., Aug. 13.—Two negroes tried to assault Mrs. Oscar Cooke and her daughter, Edith, near Kings' station Tuesday evening, but the arrival of opportune help thwarted the fiends in their purpose and they fled. Mr. Cooke with several citizens started in pursuit of the negroes, but they had gone only a short distance, when Mr. Cooke, who was laboring under great excitement, dropped dead of heart disease. The negroes were later on captured and brought to this place. They will have an examination today.

ONLY A SCARE.

The Excitement Caused by the Russian Ukase Subsiding.

BERLIN, Aug. 1.—Rye advanced one mark further yesterday, but afterward receded two marks, a calmer spirit prevailing as it became the general belief that the Russian ukase was a purely economic movement. Later the statistics also indicate better crops in Germany than had been expected. Germany's imports of rye for the past ten years have amounted to only one-sixth of her own product.

ALMOST A CALAMITY.

An American Man of War Barely Escapes Collision With Rocks.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 13.—Under the date of August 1, the officers of the United States steamship Mohican, writing from Ounalaska, say that the vessel almost went ashore on the rocks at St George Island during a fog. The ship was going at full speed when the breakers were sighted ahead. The engines were reversed and the vessel's bow missed the rocks by about ten feet.

"VIVE LE RUSSIA!"

Shout the Populace as Duke Alexis Leaves Paris.

PARIS, Aug. 13.—The Grand Duke Alexis left Paris today for Vichey. There was a great crowd of people in the streets and at the railway station to witness his departure. The people cheered and shouted "Viv le Russie et la France," "Vivo le czar," etc. An aged Russian exile threw a petition into the grand duke's carriage.

Decline With Regret.

BOSTON, Aug. 13.—Ex-President Cleveland has written regretting that he and Mrs. Cleveland cannot attend the Bennington monument unveiling.

The Weather.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13.—For Indiana: Generally fair, variable winds, slightly warmer for the day.

THIRTEEN KILLED,

And Over Forty More or Less Seriously Injured in an Accident to an Excursion Party.

NEW YORK, Aug. 14.—Fourteen persons were killed outright and thirty more were injured at Cold Spring Harbor at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. They were just clearing the dock on an excursion barge to return to Brooklyn, when the vessel was struck by a heavy squal and dashed against the dock. It was in the midst of a terrible thunder storm, the waves ran high and some people were killed as though struck by lightning. This was all excitement. Women and children were running about and screaming with fright. The sky was dark and threatening and a heavy sea was running when the upper deck of the barge fell with a crash on the crowd beneath. Fourteen persons lay dead upon the deck when the wreckage was cleared away. Thirty more were found severely injured. Others are supposed to have fallen in the water, but up to 9 o'clock last night no bodies had been washed ashore or recovered. The names of the killed and injured have not been learned.

The excursion was sent out by the large dry goods house of Geissers, of Brooklyn, for the benefit of its employes, but many other persons took advantage of the excursion to go along, and there were about 250 persons, nearly all of whom are residents of Brooklyn and Williamsburg. The excursion had two barges which belonged to Mild's Excursion company and were towed by a large tug. The excursion left Brooklyn early yesterday morning and arrived at Cold Spring harbor about 10.

The boats had barely put off from the dock on the return trip when the accident happened. Among those killed was the pilot of the barge. When the confusion had subsided the superintendent of Geissers' establishment made arrangements for sending the killed and injured to their homes in Brooklyn by special train.

The bodies of the thirteen persons who were killed by the accident on the barge Republic, were brought to Brooklyn on a boat which landed at the foot of North Sixth street, Williamsburg. No reports were made to the police, but the latest information is that one of the bodies has been identified as that of Martha Seaman, of Brooklyn. About 175 people were injured in the accident. Most of them returned to Brooklyn on a special train.

A LATER REPORT.

NEW YORK, Aug. 13.—The number of those killed by the giving way of the awning of the barge Republic at the Cold Spring harbor yesterday will not exceed thirteen, it is thought. That number of bodies was brought to Brooklyn last night. They have been all identified and their names are as follows:

Mrs. Kate Faller, aged forty, of 70 Boerum street.

Kate Faller, aged six, daughter of Mrs. Faller.

Otto Faller, aged eighteen months, a son of Mrs. Faller.

Miss Coonie Goetz, aged eighteen, 174 Erie street.

Robert Shuler, pilot of the barge.

Kate Kantz, aged four, 192 Graham avenue.

Lizzie Schamhorn, aged nine, 192 Graham avenue.

Mrs. Pauline Prinz, aged twenty-five, Driggs street.

Mrs. Anton Leberfink, aged twenty-six, 176 Graham avenue.

Henry Hoffman, address unknown.

Henry Randall, of Grand and Ninth streets.

Hannah Haller, aged twenty, 140 Boerum street.

Mrs. Chas. Snyder, 414 South Fifth street.

The dead and many of the injured were brought to this city on the steamer Crystal Stream. A special train with the rest of the injured and the excursionists who had fortunately escaped unhurt, arrived at an early hour this morning. The injured were all taken to their homes. They numbered about forty as nearly as could be learned at the time, and all were more or less seriously hurt, one, which it is thought, will die.

CONVICTS ESCAPING.

Seven of Them Get Away From the Stockholders.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Aug. 13.—Seven convicts made their escape from the stockade at Briceville yesterday. It is charged that when a convict manages to get away from the stockade and dodge the guards so as to get into the woods he has no trouble in finding some one who will provide him with citizen's clothes. Fourteen have escaped this week. One reason for the ease with which they have escaped is the great number crowded together in stockades, which are not finished.

DISCUSSING QUESTIONS.

The Y. M. C. A. Discuss the Catholic Attitude Today.

AMSTERDAM, Aug. 13.—The session of the twelfth annual convention of the Young Men's Christian association of all lands was continued today by the reading of reports and delivery of addresses. The attitude of the Y. M. C. A. to the social question and the problem of counteracting the difficulties which hinder the development of the Y. M. C. A. in Roman Catholic countries, were among the topics of discussion.

NOT DEAD YET.

General Ben Butler, at Home and Enjoying Good Health--Reads His Own Obituary.

LOWELL, Mass., Aug. 13.—The report that General Butler was dead is a canard. He is at home in this city enjoying his usual good health. He read the account of his death with a smile.

ONLY A BLUFF.

That Is What Agent Little Says of the Alton's Charge.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 13.—General Passenger Agent H. A. Little, of the Jacksonville and South Eastern line, said yesterday with reference to tickets interchangeable between the Jacksonville and South Eastern and the Santa Fe route: "The Alton has raised a howl without a reason. The ticket brokers bought tickets at their own risk. I charge that the Alton and the Wabash, as late as the evening of August 7, had tickets on the market. Mr. Charlton's letter to Chairman Finley reflecting upon the Santa Fe is a mere bluff. The Alton and Wabash flooded the ticket broker's offices with ticket after August 6, and I can prove it, for I tested the market. I assert that our tickets were honored as late as the morning of August 6, and I found Alton tickets honored as late as the evening of August 7. I know it is charged that the Santa Fe dumped people at, or near, Peoria, Ill., who had bought tickets for Chicago through sealpers. If so, the passengers could and should fall back on the ticket brokers." He did not expect the passengers to purchase tickets in blocks, and, in fact, only thirty-five tickets were bought, so the Alton has simply raised a big row without cause.

MOTHER AND DAUGHTER.

Two Southern Women Brutally Murdered by Supposed Robbers.

ST. MARTINSVILLE, La., Aug. 13.—Two of the most diabolical and atrocious murders known in criminal annals were committed in this town night before last, the victims being Mrs. James R. Robertson and her daughter, Miss Belle Robertson. Their bodies were found in the room yesterday morning. Mrs. Robertson's throat was cut from ear to ear, and the daughter had been strangled to death. The imprints of her assailants' fingers were left upon her throat. It is quite evident that two or more persons participated in the crime, and that their object was robbery. No clew to the perpetrators, but every effort is being made to detect the guilty parties.

PROVED HIS TITLE CLEAR.

Robert Hendershot is the "Original Drummer Boy of Rappahannock."

DETROIT, Aug. 13.—The controversy which was waged so warmly during the Grand Army encampment in regard to the claim of Robert Henry Hendershot as being the "original drummer of the Rappahannock" was unquestionably settled yesterday by the receipt of a letter from the chaplain of Henderson's old regiment, substantiating his claims in every particular. Mr. Hendershot is also in possession of other documents which clearly verify his story.

NEGRO EMIGRATION.

Ex-Senator Bruce Talks on the Subject From a Colored Standpoint.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13.—Ex-Senator Bruce, of Missouri, opposes the scheme of negro emigration to Liberia, and says Bishop Turner is the only prominent colored man in this country who advocates it. Mr. Bruce says the American negroes are Americans. They are African in nothing but their color, and there is no more reason why they should return to the land of their ancestors than there is for the Germans, Irish and Swedes returning to Europe.

THE DECEASED POET.

Death the Result of Liver Disease of Long Standing.

BOSTON, Aug. 13.—Dr. Henry P. Wolcott, Mr. Lowell's physician, said last night that Mr. Lowell's death resulted from a tumor of the liver. The trouble first made its appearance about eighteen months ago. He suffered intensely all through his illness and made a gallant fight, but the odds were against him and he had to succumb.

IN A TANGLE.

An Amusing Episode Happens to Two Prominent Big Four Officials at Indianapolis.

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 13.—A. M. Stinson, general agent of the Big Four railroad and brother-in-law of President Ingalls, and H. A. Christy, a Buffalo traveling man, occupied berths on a sleeping car on the Big Four train that reached here from the west yesterday morning. When the two were awake they discovered that their clothes had been stolen, and wrapping themselves in sheets, they hurried over to the Spencer house and sent in a telephone call for a hack to carry them to the Bates, where Stinson said he had other clothing. The hack was sent over from the depot, just opposite, and as Stinson rushed across the pavement and put his foot on the step to enter, he saw two ladies on the back seat. They discovered him at the same moment, and covering their faces with their hands, uttered scream after scream. Stinson turned to rush back into the hotel, but in doing so fell over Christy, who had followed him to the hack, and it was some moments before they could disentangle themselves and regain the hotel. Another hack was ordered and the two men finally got to the Bates house, where they now are.

BARNEY'S BEST IS OUTDONE.

A Show Which Extinguishes the Glory of All Previous Years.

The great Barnum & Bailey show arrived in the city at an early hour this morning and have pitched their mammoth tents on the jail flats, north of the Nickle Plate railroad track where a grand performance was given this afternoon.

Their street parade this morning was the finest ever seen in this city and demonstrated that Barnum & Bailey's is really the greatest show on earth. Over four hundred horses, forty ponies, thirteen elephants, numerous camels and giraffes, besides hundreds of cages, including bands of music and many other things of vast attraction comprised part of the grand pagentry that wended its way through our streets. The weather is fine and there could not be a grander typical circus day.

Their mammoth tents were crowded this afternoon. The performance began at 2 o'clock and was proceeded by the grand entree procession, and the visit of the patrons of the show to the many cages of wild animals, which represented the most rare and wonderful from all climes.

The circus proper, like the menagerie, is greater than ever. Nearly all of the star performers are new to Barnum & Bailey's show, though there are a few who have been with the circus for several years. This department was excellent in all of its features.

The performance which was grand and full of interest throughout closed with the presentation of the spectacular drama, "Nero, or the Destruction of Rome," in two tableaux, the first being a scene outside the gates of the ancient city and the second an imperial fete day in Rome. The ballet numbered nearly 200 beautifully costumed girls, who postured and danced with grace and abandon, and were aided by nearly as many men, after the old fashion, who by counterpoising great fans or other conspicuous ornaments back of the leaning girls, balanced the picture and supplied a relieving background, while the girls in their irridescent costumes evolved in the fascinating mazes of the dance. Fred Devere, a stalwart man, personated Nero. There were combats between the Roman soldiers and the mob, and between the gladiators, and many dead men were carried behind the scenes and thrown to the wild beasts by Nubian slaves. Afterward there was a grand procession around the ring, in which the Egyptian and other ambassadors, and the sacrificial ox, and the grand ballet, and Nero and his mother, and the soldiers, and the Nubian slaves, all in the gorgeous panoply of imperial service, appeared. Rome then burned up and Nero exulted. Then the Christians were slaughtered and Nero went away and consigned himself to the next world. It was a gorgeous spectacle, and it is a great drawing card for the big show.

MORE VICTIMS.

Later Reports Indicate That the Chicago Swindle Was a Big One.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Aug. 13.—The National Capital Savings association of Chicago, has victimized a number of people in this place. Some of them lose several hundred dollars. Among those who have been victimized by the swindling concern are a number of well known firms. The company's agent suddenly disappeared from here several weeks ago.

UNCLE SAM'S SAILORS

Receive and Return Honors From a Royal Admiral.

LONDON, Aug. 13.—Upon the arrival at Devonport of the United States training ships Jamestown and Portsmouth, the commanders paid their respects to the duke of Edinburg, admiral commanding at that naval station. Yesterday his royal highness returned the visits, being received aboard the ships with the salutes and ceremonies due his rank. He expressed his gratification at the fine showing made by the naval apprentices.

DEAD AT HIS DESK.

A Coal Merchant Supposed to Have Been Murdered by a Negro.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 13.—Job Haas, a coal dealer at the corner of Gorgas lane and the Philadelphia and Reading railway, was found murdered at his desk about 6 o'clock this morning. He had left his home but a short time before. His head was crushed in and it is supposed to have been done by a colored man who was seen about the place.

The furniture in the office was upset and broken, and the walls and floor were spattered with blood, and there was every indication that Haas' murderer had had a fearful tussle before he had accomplished his purpose.

From the appearance of the body it is thought that Haas' slayer had struck him on the head with a heavy club and stunned him. Then he finished him with a hatchet. Both weapons were found on the floor near by.

SYMPATHETIC MESSAGES.

The News of Mr. Lowell's Death Causes Sorrow Everywhere.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13.—The acting secretary of state has received, through the British minister at this city, the following telegram from the marquis of Salisbury: "The queen desires to express her sorrow and regret at the news which has just reached this country of Mr. Lowell's death." Sir Julian Pauncefote requested that this telegram be laid before the president. By his direction a copy was immediately transmitted to the family of the deceased. Mr. Wharton, in answer to Mr. Pauncefote's telegram, wrote as follows: "The president directs me to acknowledge the receipt through you of the telegram from the marquis of Salisbury conveying the queen's condolence on the death of Mr. Lowell, and to convey an expression of the president's appreciation of her majesty's sympathetic message."

BAR HARBOR, Me., Aug. 13.—Secretary Blaine expressed his deep regret when informed of Lowell's death. He expressed great admiration for the deceased, but declined a request to make some statement regarding Mr. Lowell's career as a diplomat.

NEWBURYPORT, Mass., Aug. 13.—John Greenleaf Whittier, who has been obliged to return from the mountains on account of ill health, was shocked by the news of Lowell's death. "It is a great loss to American letters and to the world," he remarked.

NORTH CONWAY, N. H., Aug. 13.—W. D. Howells speaks of Lowell's death as a national calamity. He declines to be interviewed, but says he may write an article on Lowell at some future time.

FATHER CHINIQUY

Deserts the Catholic Church--Exciting Scenes in Wisconsin.

RICE LAKE, Wis., Aug. 13.—This city is all torn up over the arrival of Father Chiniquy, who spoke here last evening in the Presbyterian church, his subject being: "Why I Left the Church of Rome." The local priest here of the Catholic church has been very active in his efforts to prevent the lecture, demanding of the Presbyterian church that they close the doors of their church to the lecturer. There is much excitement, but no disturbance is anticipated, the mayor and civil officers being on the alert.

ST. LOUIS GETS THEM.

The Battery of the Defunct Minneapolis Club Sign Elsewhere.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 13.—Secretary Munson, of the St. Louis club, reached here this morning. He was accompanied by Darling, Rettger and McQuaid, of the disbanded Minneapolis club, and who have already signed to play with the Browns. President Von der Ahe returned from Louisville today and says the Louisville club will not sell out to Milwaukee or any other city.

CHASED BY WOLVES.

Children Barely Escape a Horrible Death While Berry Picking.

MOULTON, Iowa, Aug. 13.—While two children of Albert White were out picking berries near town Tuesday, two wolves came out of the bushes and chased them. The little children fled screaming towards town. The intervention of a farmer with a gun alone saved their lives.

Probably Stamped.

CHICAGO, Aug. 13.—W. H. Mortimer, who is said to have left Minneapolis to surrender himself to the authorities here had not arrived up to 2 o'clock today. Inspector Stuart remained in his office most of the day to receive him, but he came not.

Rev. Charles Hulchinson, of the Third Presbyterian church of New Albany, has been transferred to a Denver pulpit.

Mrs. D. F. Dillion and children, of Payne, Ohio, are in the city to lay visiting friends.

Mrs. James Challant, of Bluffton, is visiting Fort Wayne relatives.

LOST A MILLION.

Did E. C. Partridge, the Speculator, But He Announces Himself Still in the Ring.

CHICAGO, Aug. 13.—E. C. Partridge, the plunger, settled his affairs with the board of trade today and his enormous loss, amounting to over $1,000,000, if not more, is now a thing of the past. His check for more than $100,000—the largest that has passed the clearing house for many a day—was handed in before 10 o'clock this morning. It is quite possible that with the speculator's settlement, the board of trade has seen the last of him, but he does not authorize this statement. He simply says he don't know whether he will trade again or not. "Financially, I am all right," said Mr. Partridge, "otherwise I am—well, I got beat, but it was not by the market. Somebody is behind this thing, but they won't catch me that way again. No, I never said I would quit trading. What I did say was that I had played the limit—plunged, I guess they call it, and I didn't intend to play that way any more and that's the truth. I won't let them get me again." Mr. Partridge said that he was still possessed of an income of $130,000 a year from what remained of his fortune.

ABDUCTORS CAPTURED.

A Gang of Tough Crooks are Brought to Grief in Detroit.

DETROIT, Aug. 13.—On the evening of March 19, Joseph Perrien, a prominent Detroit business man, reputed to be worth nearly $1,000,000, was inveigled into a hack from his home on pretense of business, and kept for forty-eight hours in some secluded part of the city. A ransom of $10,000 was demanded by his abductors from his family, but its payment being refused, at the expiration of two days he was blindfolded, taken in a hack, and left in the street at some distance from his home, to return to it as best he might. The police made vigorous efforts to discover his abductors, but they did not succeed until late yesterday afternoon, when the city was startled by the report that the gang of kidnappers had been arrested and placed in jail. Five men compose the gang: John and Billy Considine, Frank Griffiths, James McDoel and Tom Kennedy. They are the leaders of a gang of crooks that has infested this city for years, and have been responsible for at least two murders, a dozen or more shooting affrays, and all the big burglaries, but against whom no convicting evidence could be secured. The police claim to have a sure case against the gang this time, as one of its members has squealed. The kidnapping was one of the most sensational criminal events in the city's history.

AN HONORED GRAVE.

The Late Herman Raster Laid to His Last Rest.

CHICAGO, Aug. 13.—The funeral of Herman Raster took place from his late residence, 391 West Jackson street, at 10 o'clock this morning. The body was encased in a rosewood coffin and was carried on a large catafalque, draped in black and brightened only by wreaths of immortelles, laurel and white roses placed on the casket and corners of the funeral car. The services at the residence this morning included musical selections by the Germania Mannerchor, of which Mr. Raster was one of the oldest members, and addresses by Gen. I. N. Stiles and Wm. Vocke. The remains were then taken to Graceland cemetery, where they were laid to rest in the family plot. Wm. Rapp, a lifelong friend and the present editor-in-chief of the Staats Zeitung, delivered an address in German at the grave.

BIG CUT IN BEER.

Milwaukee, Cincinnati and St. Louis Brewers Reduce to $4 a Barrel.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Aug. 13.—Milwaukee, Cincinnati and St. Louis brewers yesterday morning reduced the price of beer shipped to Kansas City customers to $4 per barrel. This is the outcome of a recent meeting of brewers from St. Louis, Milwaukee, Quincy and Kansas City held here, in which the foreign brewers desired to make a rate of $8 a barrel for beer. The Kansas City brewers refused to do, desiring to retain the established price of $7. The Kansas City brewers have for a long time stood out against every effort of the brewers of other cities to force them into the price of $8 a barrel for beer. The foreign brewers, it is claimed, now propose to force the home brewers to go out of the business or into the combine, neither of which the Kansas City brewers propose to do. The local brewers held a meeting this morning to discuss the matter, and determined to fight it out.

MORE MEASLES.

Two More Cases Reported at the Institute for Feeble Minded.

Fourteen children are now prostrated with measles at the institute for feeble minded, an increase of two cases over yesterday. Dr. Swearingen said to a SENTINEL reporter that the cases are all under control. Probably twenty inmates were affected, but of these several have recovered and it is believed that the contagion will be confined without any fatal cases.

MASONIC TEMPLE—"The Hustler."

THE crops need a good, drenching rain.

LABOR day will be a great event in this city.

THE mosquito is forcibly reminding us of his presence.

A CIRCUS always captures a town, and Barnum & Bailey are doing it in Fort Wayne today.

BASE ball cranks are getting lonesome. They sigh because the home league is dead.

OUR summer is rapidly passing away. In a little more than a month the autumn will be here.

THE pickpocket always trys to get in his work when there is a big crowd in town. Look out for him.

IT IS reported that 40,000 negroes are to colonize in San Francisco with the assistance of Senator Stanford.

FORT WAYNE is keeping up her reputation as a Sunday base ball town. Another game is advertised for next Sunday.

WITH the big crowds in the city today, what a grand thing a number of drinking fountains would be along our streets.

OVER eight hundred taxpayers of Kansas City, Kan., threatened to lynch their mayor and council because of supposed boodling.

FORT WAYNE will welcome a grand gathering of the heroes of German wars next Saturday. They will be given a warm welcome to our city.

THERE isn't harmony among the Indiana republicans, by any means. The Harrison and Gresham forces seem to delight in fighting each other.

REPRESENTATIVES of Indiana, Ohio, Michigan and Wisconsin rejected the scheme for a joint building in the shape of a four leaf clover at the World's Fair.

DEATH has been doing its sorrowful work in our midst within the last few days. There are emblems of mourning hanging on the doors of several homes in the city.

THE peoples' party are preparing for active work in the Ohio campaign. John Sietz, their candidate for governor, will speak in nearly every county in the state.

IT WAS so intensely hot at San Miguel, Cal., the other day, that some chemicals in the principal drug store exploded from the high temperature and set fire to the building.

BRAZIL this year has a coffee crop of 9,000,000 bags, nearly double the crop of last year. In Guatemala the crop is also excellent and is expected to bring $30,000,000 in gold.

SIXTY days after the next national democratic convention is the time agreed upon by the executive committee of the National Association of Democratic clubs, for that organization to meet.

REPORTS of the hay crop from the counties of twelve states show that while in some states it is large, in others the yield is light. The best yield is in the states of Missouri, Kansas and Nebraska.

A LETTER from Secretary J. F. Tillman, of the national farmers' alliance, says Indianapolis has been selected as the place for the farmers' alliance convention, and that Tomlinson hall will be the home of the delegates during the week beginning November 17.

AFTER a series of experiments at the Missouri agricultural station with sixty-three varieties of wheat, the Fultz variety was pronounced the best, although the Early Oakley gave the largest yield.

CANADA only lacks 237,000 square miles of being as large as the whole continent of Europe. It is nearly thirty times as large as Great Britain and Ireland, and is 600,000 square miles larger than the United States.

GOVERNOR NORTHEND, of Georgia, has signed the bill to prohibit the sale of liquor within three miles of any church or school except in incorporated cities. This means prohibition in Georgia, as either schools or churches exist almost every three miles, and where they do not exist cheap structures will be erected at once.

OLEM STUDEBAKER, the wealthy manufacturer of South Bend, says he is not a candidate for governor. In reference to the presidential candidate for the republicans, he says: "I am a great admirer of Mr. Blaine, and I think that if he wants the nomination he can have it. I do not think he wants it, and I think Mr. Harrison will be renominated."

IT IS now believed that the name of the Columbus Grove robber is William Murray, sent to the penitentiary about six years ago for robbing Mrs. Ross, of Troy, Ohio. He has recently been released from the pen by the expiration of his sentence. He has served a term in Michigan for the robbery of a bank there. The circumstances were similar to the Columbus Grove job. He is a desperado of the most reckless type.

STATE STATISTICIAN Pelle has issued a "home book-keeping blank, by means of which the bureau will be able to get a good idea of what it costs the average man to live. The blanks are arranged for twenty-six weeks, and it is ruled for weekly entries on forty-five subjects. The names of the persons will be kept private, and it is hoped that everyone who receives a blank will return it with confidence, as the statistics will be valuable.

STATE NEWS.

Lightning struck the residence of Mrs. Lotta Benson, widow, at Terre Haute, and every member of the family was rendered insensible by the shock.

A blue racer, said to be fifteen feet in length, is lurking on the farm of Robert Enright, near Knightstown. The snake has caused considerable alarm in that neighborhood.

The grand lodge of Masons (colored) is holding an annual meeting at New Albany. Reports show twenty-eight lodges in the state with a membership of 614, a gain of 160 during the year. Fifty-three delegates are in attendance.

Charles Waterman was arrested at Michigan City as a horse thief, and he proved to be an ex-convict, having served several terms for various offenses. It also developed that he had been making his home at Three Rivers, Mich., where he had succeeded in gaining the confidence of the community, while he continued his depredations elsewhere.

William Bullt, formerly of Birmingham, England, died in the Columbus city hospital. He left an estate valued at $10,000, also a number of letters from friends in England admonishing him to shun the Gentiles and never forsake his religious belief, which was that of a soul-sleeper. For many years prior to his death Bullt went unshaven and unshorn.

Among the converts at the Nathan Frame evangelistic meetings at Columbus was Albert Kline, a stranger. A few days later he was united in marriage to Miss Jane Wise, contrary to the wishes of her friends. Last Friday Kline sauntered from the house, saying he would take a short walk, since which time he has been missing. His wife's gold watch and minor articles of value disappeared at the same time.

The audience which exposed itself to warm weather opera house discomfort for the sake of seeing "Yon Yonson" at the Temple last evening, was amply repaid in the treat there given. The impersonation of "Yon Yonson" by Gus Heege is that of an unpolished, honest Swedish lumberman, whose dialect and simplicity of manner, and the dry humor that is wrought in his acting, make him an unusually interesting character. Annie Lewis in her impersonation of Jennie Morris, the book agent throws a ray of sunshine through the whole performance. She becomes a prime favorite wherever she goes. Miss Annie Haines as proprietress of the Rush City hotel, and the other characters are all that could be desired. The plot is interesting, the scenery magnificent, and in fact the show of "Yon Yonson" is deserving throughout of most excellent recommendation.

The Huntington Democrat says: "Miss Clara Cornelle, of Fort Wayne, is a pleasant visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. Bowman, of North Cherry street.—Miss Josephine Hartman, of Fort Wayne, who delighted the people of Huntington with her musical skill as a pianist, at the concert last Thursday, returned to her home Monday evening, having been the guest in the meantime of Mrs. George Moses and Miss Lizzie Arnold."

The Ladies' Home and Foreign Missionary society of the First Presbyterian church will meet tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock in the bible class room of the church.

Those present were: Miss Addie Stull, Miss Rosa Miller, Misses Annie and Suzy McWhirter, Miss Mary Somers, Misses Mary and Mamie Mulstosh and Miss Cora Wilkinson, of Fort Wayne; Messrs. William Gaylord, David Scout, George Robinson, Owen Miller and Bert Somers. A very pleasant time was had by all, as the evening was spent sociably, but not in dancing and card playing, as was stated in last week's issue.

Won to the Conquered.

The Romans called "War Virtue" "Woe to the conquered" at their triumphs. Today many of us are being conquered—in peace, our foes and daily appetite are best won by the invader of the stomach, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, to restore digestion, regularity of action, appetite, refreshing sleep and healthful nerves. It is unrivaled to dislodge this permanent enemy of form and obligation, constipation, and to counteract the effects of intemperance or malaria. It is a specific for biliousness, kidney and bladder ailments. This remedy of specific and many more overcomes them all. The afflicted are also assisted by this fine tonic.

A FIGHT FOR LIFE.

Shall We Drive Slow Poison From Our Breakfast Table?—Alum and Ammonia in Our Bread.

A nuisance that troubled England fifty years ago is now rapidly spreading in this country, that is putting Alum in the bread we eat. This question is causing a great deal of discussion at the present moment, as it is revealed that alum is being used as a substitute for cream of tartar in baking powders. A story is told that a very large percentage of the baking powders sold on the market contain either alum or ammonia, and many of them contain both these pernicious drugs. Much timely alarm is felt at the wholesale use of alum in bread, biscuit and pastry. To young children, growing girls, persons of weakly frame alum bread eaten morning, noon and evening is the most harmful. It is the small quantities taken at every meal that do the mischief. Alum is cheap, costing but two or three cents a pound, while cream of tarter costs 80c, and the high price of cream of tartar has led cheap baking powder to be made of alum. If the reader wants to know something of the corrosive qualities of alum let him touch a piece to his tongue then reflect how it acts on the tender delicate coats of the stomach.

Following is a list compiled by the Scientific American, of the alum and ammonia baking powders that have already been tested.

A BIG WINNER.

"The Hustler" Fast Making a Fortune for its Managers.

A red letter farce comedy event will occur at the Masonic Temple tonight, when the bright and breezy play of "The Hustler," now making a great trans continental tour, will again be unfolded for the diversion of local playgoers. As a mirth-producer "The Hustler" is pronounced an enormous success. From the rise of the curtain to the final fall of the same the interest never flags, the humor never loses a piquant flavor and the entire piece gets rippling merriment on to an uproariously funny termination. Incidental to the action of the play, a perfect platform of catchy specialties are introduced.

The Rev. A. Antoine of Refugio, Tex., writes: As far as I am able to judge, I think Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic is a perfect success, for any one who suffered from a most painful nervousness as I did. I feel now like myself again after taking the Tonic.

Glad to Recommend It.

Cincinnati, Ohio, May, 1890.

It is two years now since my child was cured by Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic. Only half a bottle of it was required to stop those fits, which the doctors were not able to do. The child has been strong and healthy ever since. I am therefore glad to recommend such a good remedy.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

At a regular meeting of Fort Wayne lodge, No. 136, Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, held August 11th, 1891, the following preamble and resolutions were adopted:

WHEREAS, In view of the loss we have sustained by the death of our late brother and associate, L. S. Maples, and of the still heavier loss sustained by those who were nearest and dearest to him, therefore be it

Resolved, That it is but a just tribute to the memory of the departed to say that, in regretting his removal from our midst, we mourn for one who was in every way worthy of our respect and regard.

Resolved, That we sincerely condole with the family of the deceased on the dispensation with which it has pleased Divine Providence to afflict them and commend them for consolation to Him who orders all things for the best and whose chastisements are meant in mercy.

Resolved, That this heartfelt testimonial of our sympathy and sorrow be forwarded to the family of our departed brother, and to the daily papers of Fort Wayne, and a copy of the same be placed upon the records of the lodge.

(Signed.) J. P. HERRING,
C. ZEIGLER,
H. E. GIVENS,
Committee.

THEN AND NOW.

In 1838 a man and his wife removed from Glastonbury, Conn., to Illinois. The journey occupied three weeks and two days. At the average rate of speed prevailing on stage coaches, this was not by any means a tardy journey. Many a wagon has occupied three weeks in the journey between Philadelphia and Pittsburg. Winter storms, indeed, have often blockaded unfortunates on the mountains until the return of spring. The wanderers from the land of steady habits had no cause for complaint. Recently they started homeward, wishing to end their days in Glastonbury. The return trip was made in one day and two nights. It would be difficult to clip from the diary of anyone a better illustration of the progress of steam. The western trip was not specially long, judged by the standard of 1838, and the eastern journey not particularly short, judged by the standard of 1891; but the difference in the standards is very marked.

RATHER PREMATURE.

THE SENTINEL a few days ago stated that the Lafayette and Lima car works would be removed to Chicago. It now transpires that the item was premature, as the following from the Indianapolis Journal would indicate: "The statement that the Lafayette car works and the Lima car works are to be removed to the new plant which is to be established in northern Indiana is somewhat premature. While the same parties are interested in the two works more or less, they have been operated as different institutions. While the Lafayette car works are in the hands of a receiver, the Lima works are in good shape financially. Everything, however, points to the Lafayette works being absorbed by the new corporation as soon as its affairs are straightened up and the establishment out of the hands of a receiver."

WILL BUILD AN ENGINE IN TWELVE HOURS.

The machinists of the Pennsylvania railroad company's shop at Altoona are about to accomplish a very rapid piece of work. They are making arrangements to manufacture a mogul engine in twelve hours. It will contain all the latest improvements. It will haul the limited trains between Philadelphia and New York. If the monster is manufactured in twelve hours it will beat the best record by three hours.

THE WABASH REACHING OUT.

The Wabash has secured the right of way from Effingham south, and grading is to be commenced next month. The right of way has also been secured north from Carmi. The road will extend from Carmi, Ill., to Clay City, on the Ohio and Mississippi road, thirty miles, and thence to Effingham, a total distance of sixty miles, through a productive country.

A LONG TRAIN.

On August 2 the longest single train ever hauled in this country passed over the Philadelphia and Reading. The train left Schuylkill Haven at 8:58 and arrived at Port Richmond at 3:05 p. m., the run covering eleven hours. The train was 3,000 feet long and consisted of ninety cars loaded with coal.

The groom is a barber, employed at the shop of Henry Guenther, at 818 East Washington street.

The city department of the Y. M. C. A. is desirious of offering as many privileges as possible, and therefore, would request that all those who would like to secure a physical director meet in the Y. M. C. A. hall, tomorrow evening, at 8 o'clock. Young men if you are interested be on hand, for unless there is sufficient interest the department will not feel justified in making the additional expense. Let there be a full representation of all interested whether you belong to the association or not.

Webster Did It.

NEW YORK, Aug. 12.—The coroner's jury in the case of C. E. Goodwin, who was shot dead August 2, at 230 West Forty-seventh street, found a verdict today that the shot was fired by Bertram C. Webster. The fact is noted that Webster signs his name "Burton" C. Webster. A question of law may grow out of this discrepancy. Webster was remanded without bail.

Held a Secret Session.

BALTIMORE, Aug. 12.—The people's party convention reassembled today in secret session. It was stated that something might be given out for publication later in the day.

A SENSIBLE man in Walla Walla, Wash., says that he sees no prospect of solving the problem of practical aerial navigation without the use of birds. He proposes that a light bamboo car be built and to this be attached 100 geese or ducks which have been previously trained to fly in any direction indicated. He estimates that these will be able to carry the car and a man weighing 150 pounds. He earns the right to be called a sensible man by urging that someone else try the experiment. After he has made an ass of himself by being carried half a mile or so heavenward by such a team, he would be apt to wish he could make a goose of himself and so reach the ground in safety.

MR. DEPEW affects a certain indignation because he and the other directors of the New York and New Haven Railway were indicted for their refusal to obey the law prohibiting the use of stoves in passenger cars. The very idea of expecting railroad directors to observe the law is too absurd to be entertained for a minute. When it comes to drawing salaries the high officials of those corporations are always on hand, but in cases where responsibility is to be placed for violation of law it is brakemen and engineers who run the road—not the directors. Since Mr. Depew acknowledges that he and his associates were badly scared, we may conclude that they will abolish the car stove right speedily, now that they have escaped punishment for past neglect.

A BALTIMORE woman wants $30,000 for the alienation of her husband's affections. Few wives would value their husbands at so small a figure, or so large a one. The head of the house is usually a "good for nothing" or "the best in the world" in his helpmeet's opinion, and both estimates are about equally correct.

It saves wear and tear, too—and that's money. Delicate summer clothes don't have to be rubbed and wrenched when they're washed with Pearline. Everything is washed easily—and safely. Pearline doesn't do any more in warm weather than in cold, but you seem to need it more then. It's a necessity. But it's a luxury, as well. Try it in the bath, and you'll think so.

Beware Peddlers and some unscrupulous grocers will tell you, "this is as good as" or "the same as Pearline," IT'S FALSE—Pearline is never peddled, and if your grocer sends you something in place of Pearline, do the honest thing—send it back. 293 JAMES PYLE, New York.

For the Fall of 1891.

Since the reduction of the sugar duties, the market has seen the lowest prices since the history of the U. S. There is no complaining now about price. The idea of granulated sugar selling at 6c lb and choice yellow sugars at 4c lb was a thing unthought of yet, so it is, and the people are availing themselves of it, and using double the quantity they formerly did.

Standard Granulated 5c lb. Standard Coffee A. 4½c lb.
Pulverized Powdered Sugar 5c lb. Best Cut Loaf 5c lb.
Choice Extra C. Yellow 4c lb.

TEAS! TEAS! TEAS! TEAS!

Are also extremely low—notwithstanding the increased consumption, they are no higher. The high prices in coffee was thought would advance teas, but it has not. They remain at last quotations, and very firm in price. When it is considered that we sell a good tea at 30c lb, while coffee is selling at 25c lb, anyone can readily account for the increased demand for teas for a pound of tea will go further than 2 lbs of coffee, and besides is becoming a favored cup. We sell more tea now in a day than we did in a month twenty years ago. We maintain our reputation for selling No. 1 teas at the low prevailing prices—by the principle of purchasing our teas direct of the importers and retailing them direct to our customers at a small profit, thereby saving them the profit of the middleman, which is often 10 to 20c lb.

This morning, while the crowd in the city was on its way to see the show tents pitched on the jail flats on the north side of the Nickel Plate railroad, trucks, several persons were standing in the jail yard looking up at the windows of that edifice. In some way the report became circulated that one of the prisoners in the jail had shot himself and soon the yard was filled with a surging crowd. Sheriff Viberg had difficulty in convincing them that the report was not true, but finally they believed him and left the yard.

THE REALM ELYSIAN.

Loved Ones Who Have Been Summoned to Their Last Rest—Deaths and Funerals.

Daniel Martin, jr., the popular young assistant bookkeeper for Centlivre's brewery, died Wednesday afternoon of brain fever after a lingering illness. The deceased was twenty four years old. He was educated in the Catholic schools and lived in Fort Wayne all his life. He was just entering upon a useful life full of promise, for his upright manhood and elevating traits of character could only lead him to the goal of success. His removal from earthly scenes must naturally overwhelm the bereaved parents, brothers and sisters with grief, but among his associates, too, it will be hard to be reconciled to the sad reality. Sorrow will come to many.

The deceased was a member of St. Julian council, C. B. L., in which organization he carried an insurance of $3,000, in favor of his mother. The remains will be shipped on the Wabash road to Lafayette tomorrow morning at 5 o'clock, and the funeral and interment will be in that city.

The funeral of Daniel Dick, the engineer who was killed on the Grand Rapids and Indiana railroad, took place this afternoon from the late residence, 89 West Butler street, Rev. J. M. Boggs, pastor of the Third Presbyterian church, officiating. There was a large attendance. The interment was at Lindenwood. His pall bearers were James T. Sears, Mr. Mattoon, Harvey Brehm, J. Anderson, Mr. Nickey and T. H. Gould.

Kenith, the four month old child of Mr. and Mrs. Gates, of 61 North Calhoun street, died of cholera infantum. The remains will be shipped to Grass Lake, Michigan.

Charles, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Caosse, of 205 East Wayne street, died of spasms. The funeral took place this afternoon.

The funeral of Mrs. George Fox took place this morning from the St. Paul's and was largely attended. A large concourse of friends followed the remains of one of the most loved residents to their last resting place.

The funeral of Frank Edward, son of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Himbert, of 578 East Washington street, will take place tomorrow morning, at 9 o'clock, from the St. Mary's Catholic church.

The funeral of the late Thomas Brown, who was killed in the Grand Rapids railroad wreck, took place this morning at 9 o'clock from the Cathedral. The obsequies were conducted under the auspices of the Firemen's brotherhood. The funeral was largely attended.

STRUCK IT RICH.

The Oil Well at Payne, Ohio, Proves a Success.

The oil well struck two miles north of Payne, in Paulding county, is a success. It will yield from thirty-five to forty barrels of oil a day and of a very superior quality. It is under the control of the Quintete Oil company, which is composed of five of the leading citizens of Payne, who will work it; and it will prove quite a bonanza to them. There are two other oil wells around Payne, both of which are paying. Paulding county is proving to be a great oil field.

MASHED A FOOT.

Henry Franklin, of Wortsville, Ohio, Meets With an Accident.

Henry Franklin, a young man hailing from Worstville, Ohio, while attempting to board a Nickel Plate freight train near Harrison street, this afternoon, slipped and fell in the path of the moving wheels. With great presence of mind the young man threw his body from under the moving train but the wheels caught his left foot, mashing three toes so badly that amputation was necessary. The injured man was conveyed to the St. Joe hospital, where Dr. W. H. Myers attended him.

The supply of natural gas at Vernon has been exhausted, and the pipes and mains laid two years ago are being dug up.

MAYOR ZOLLINGER'S GIFT.

The Mayor Presents the Zollinger Battery With an Elegant Guidon.

Last evening marked a pleasant event in the history of the Zollinger battery. It was given out that Col. C. A. Zollinger, mayor, desired to see the members of the battery at the armory at 8 o'clock, and in compliance with instructions of Captain Wallace Mungen, the members were promptly on hand at that hour. Colonel Zollinger, after whom the organization was named, made his appearance, and addressing the boys, he said he felt a deep interest in their welfare and was glad to note the progress they had made. He asked them to accept of him, as a token of his sincerity in their behalf, a guidon, which he hoped would encourage the company to still greater attainments. The guidon is a small flag or streamer carried by cavalry, artillery or infantry. The one presented last evening is handsome, and bears on each side the following inscription: "Zollinger Batter, Organized April 5, 1888." Captain Mungen received the guidon and feelingly responded to the donor's words of presentation.

SENSATIONAL RUMORS.

Two of Them in Circulation in This City Prove Untrue.

A rumor was circulated on the streets of this city late yesterday afternoon that President Harrison had been assassinated at Washington by Fred Douglass, the ex-minister to Hayti. It was without any foundation whatever, being but a cruel joke that somebody attempted to play.

During the night a telegram was sent over the wires and was printed by one of the morning papers of this city that Ben Butler had died, and the paper printing the telegram published in connection with it a sketch of the life of the distinguished soldier and statesman.

REACHING OUT.

A Medical Department Building to be Built to Taylor University.

The Taylor university will have a medical department this year that will exceed any branch of this kind that has yet been seen in Fort Wayne. At a meeting of the trustees it was decided to build a new addition to the present university building to be used exclusively for medical department purposes. The enrollment of students this year will be double that of last term. The future of the medical department of Taylor University is bright.

A REMARKABLE CURE

Effected by a Well-Known Occulist of This City.

Dr. John Seaton, the well-known occulist of this city, is achieving a deserved reputation and effecting some remarkable cures in his practice, one of which has just come to the attention of THE SENTINEL reporter.

Miss Lizzie Prendiger, of Columbus, Ohio, was afflicted with granulated eyes for five years, during which time she had doctored with physicians in Columbus and elsewhere, but none of them did her any good, and all the time she continued to grow worse. Her eyesight was gradually failing her and she was becoming blind. When friends brought her to Dr. Seaton for treatment on the 21st day of August, 1890, she could not see and had to be led to his office. She was only under his treatment one month when her vision was so far restored that she could see to read the finest print in the newspapers and she is now entirely well.

After remaining in this city one month she left for home, and in a letter written from Columbus on May 30 last, she says: "I am doing splendidly. I use your medicines some yet and my eyes are growing stronger. I think I can see now as well as I ever did. You cured me and I desire to recommend you to all those who are afflicted as I was." Testimony like this comes from many of Dr. Seaton's patients and they speak volumes of praise to his skill and ability as an occulist. His office is located over the drug store of Drier Bros. in this city.

THE PEOPLE'S STORE,
BEADELL & COMPANY
Best Lighted Store in the city.

Warning!

The parties who defraud the public and ourselves by endeavoring to imitate our flour, do not imitate the flour, however. They imitate only sack and brand. "What a fair outside falsehood hath."

It is a risky business these people undertake. It is not stated on the sacks where the bogus flour is made. In the moon perhaps. If so then genuine flour has reached that delectable above.

Ask your grocer for the genuine article made at our mills here in Fort Wayne.
